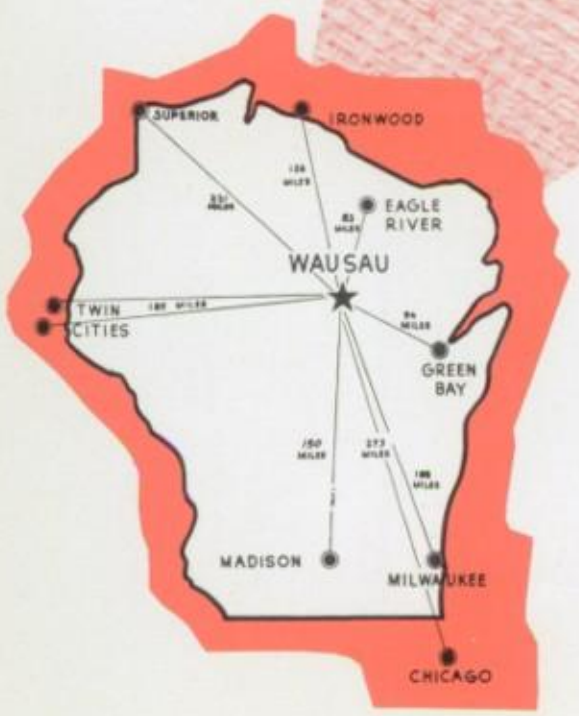
Wausau Senior High School
Wausau, Wisconsin



Wausau Senior High School, located in the heart of north central Wisconsin on the banks of the beautiful Wisconsin River, is growing by leaps and bounds. The old unit on Seventh and Fulton was erected in 1899 to accommodate a student body of 400 pupils.

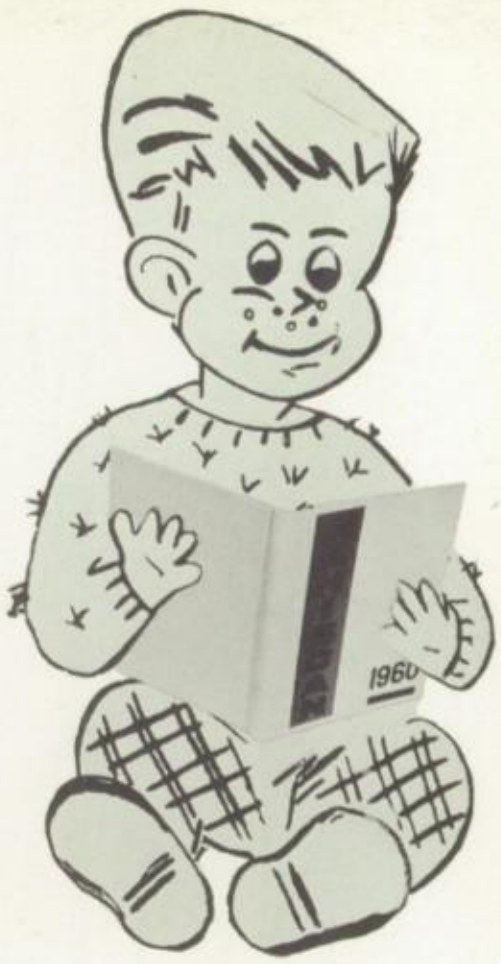
Today, in 1960, seventy-eight staff members are needed to teach 130 regular and special courses to 1650 students during an average school year. With Senior High experiencing steady growing pains, Wausau's progressive Board of Education and City Council have taken steps to alleviate crowded conditions. An auditorium, classrooms and shops were built in 1950, and this year will see the completion of the NEW GYMNASIUM and CAFETERIA.

Senior High is growing not only in size but also in academic achievement. Long a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, it was recently honored as ONE OF THE TOP FORTY-FOUR HIGH SCHOOLS in the United States.

A NEW DECADE

LEAP YEAR . . .

A NEW WAHISCAN



Every four years the tables turn. The female element in our society puts on her sneakers and declares open season on men.

The girls have been existing in the canvas boots of various colors for quite some time. Boys, realizing their worth, donned the white rubber-soled shoes and found in them comfort and the traction needed for the Leap Year race.

Follow our gal as she chases her guy through the pages of the 1960 WAHISCAN.

FAMILIAR FACES

It is said "there are two sides to every story." There are "three sides" to the Wausau Story. The 1899 construction, the 1935 addition and the beautiful 3rd addition built in 1950 housing large and modern band, orchestra, and choir rooms, one of the finest high school auditoriums in the state, and not to mention the industrial and fine arts set-ups in the southeast wing. In the 1961 WAHISCAN you will see the 4th addition now under construction.

With the new gym and cafeteria setup (pictured on our end sheets) many of our space problems will be solved. The new cafeteria will permit the present cafeteria space to be utilized as an electrical shop, for which it was originally intended.

The "little cracker box" where the boys take Phy. Ed. will be abandoned to the delight of "Brock" and his men. The spacious and modern gym will seat about 2000.

It is easy to forget a face. We of the "staff" hope this page will serve as a reminder long after your graduation.

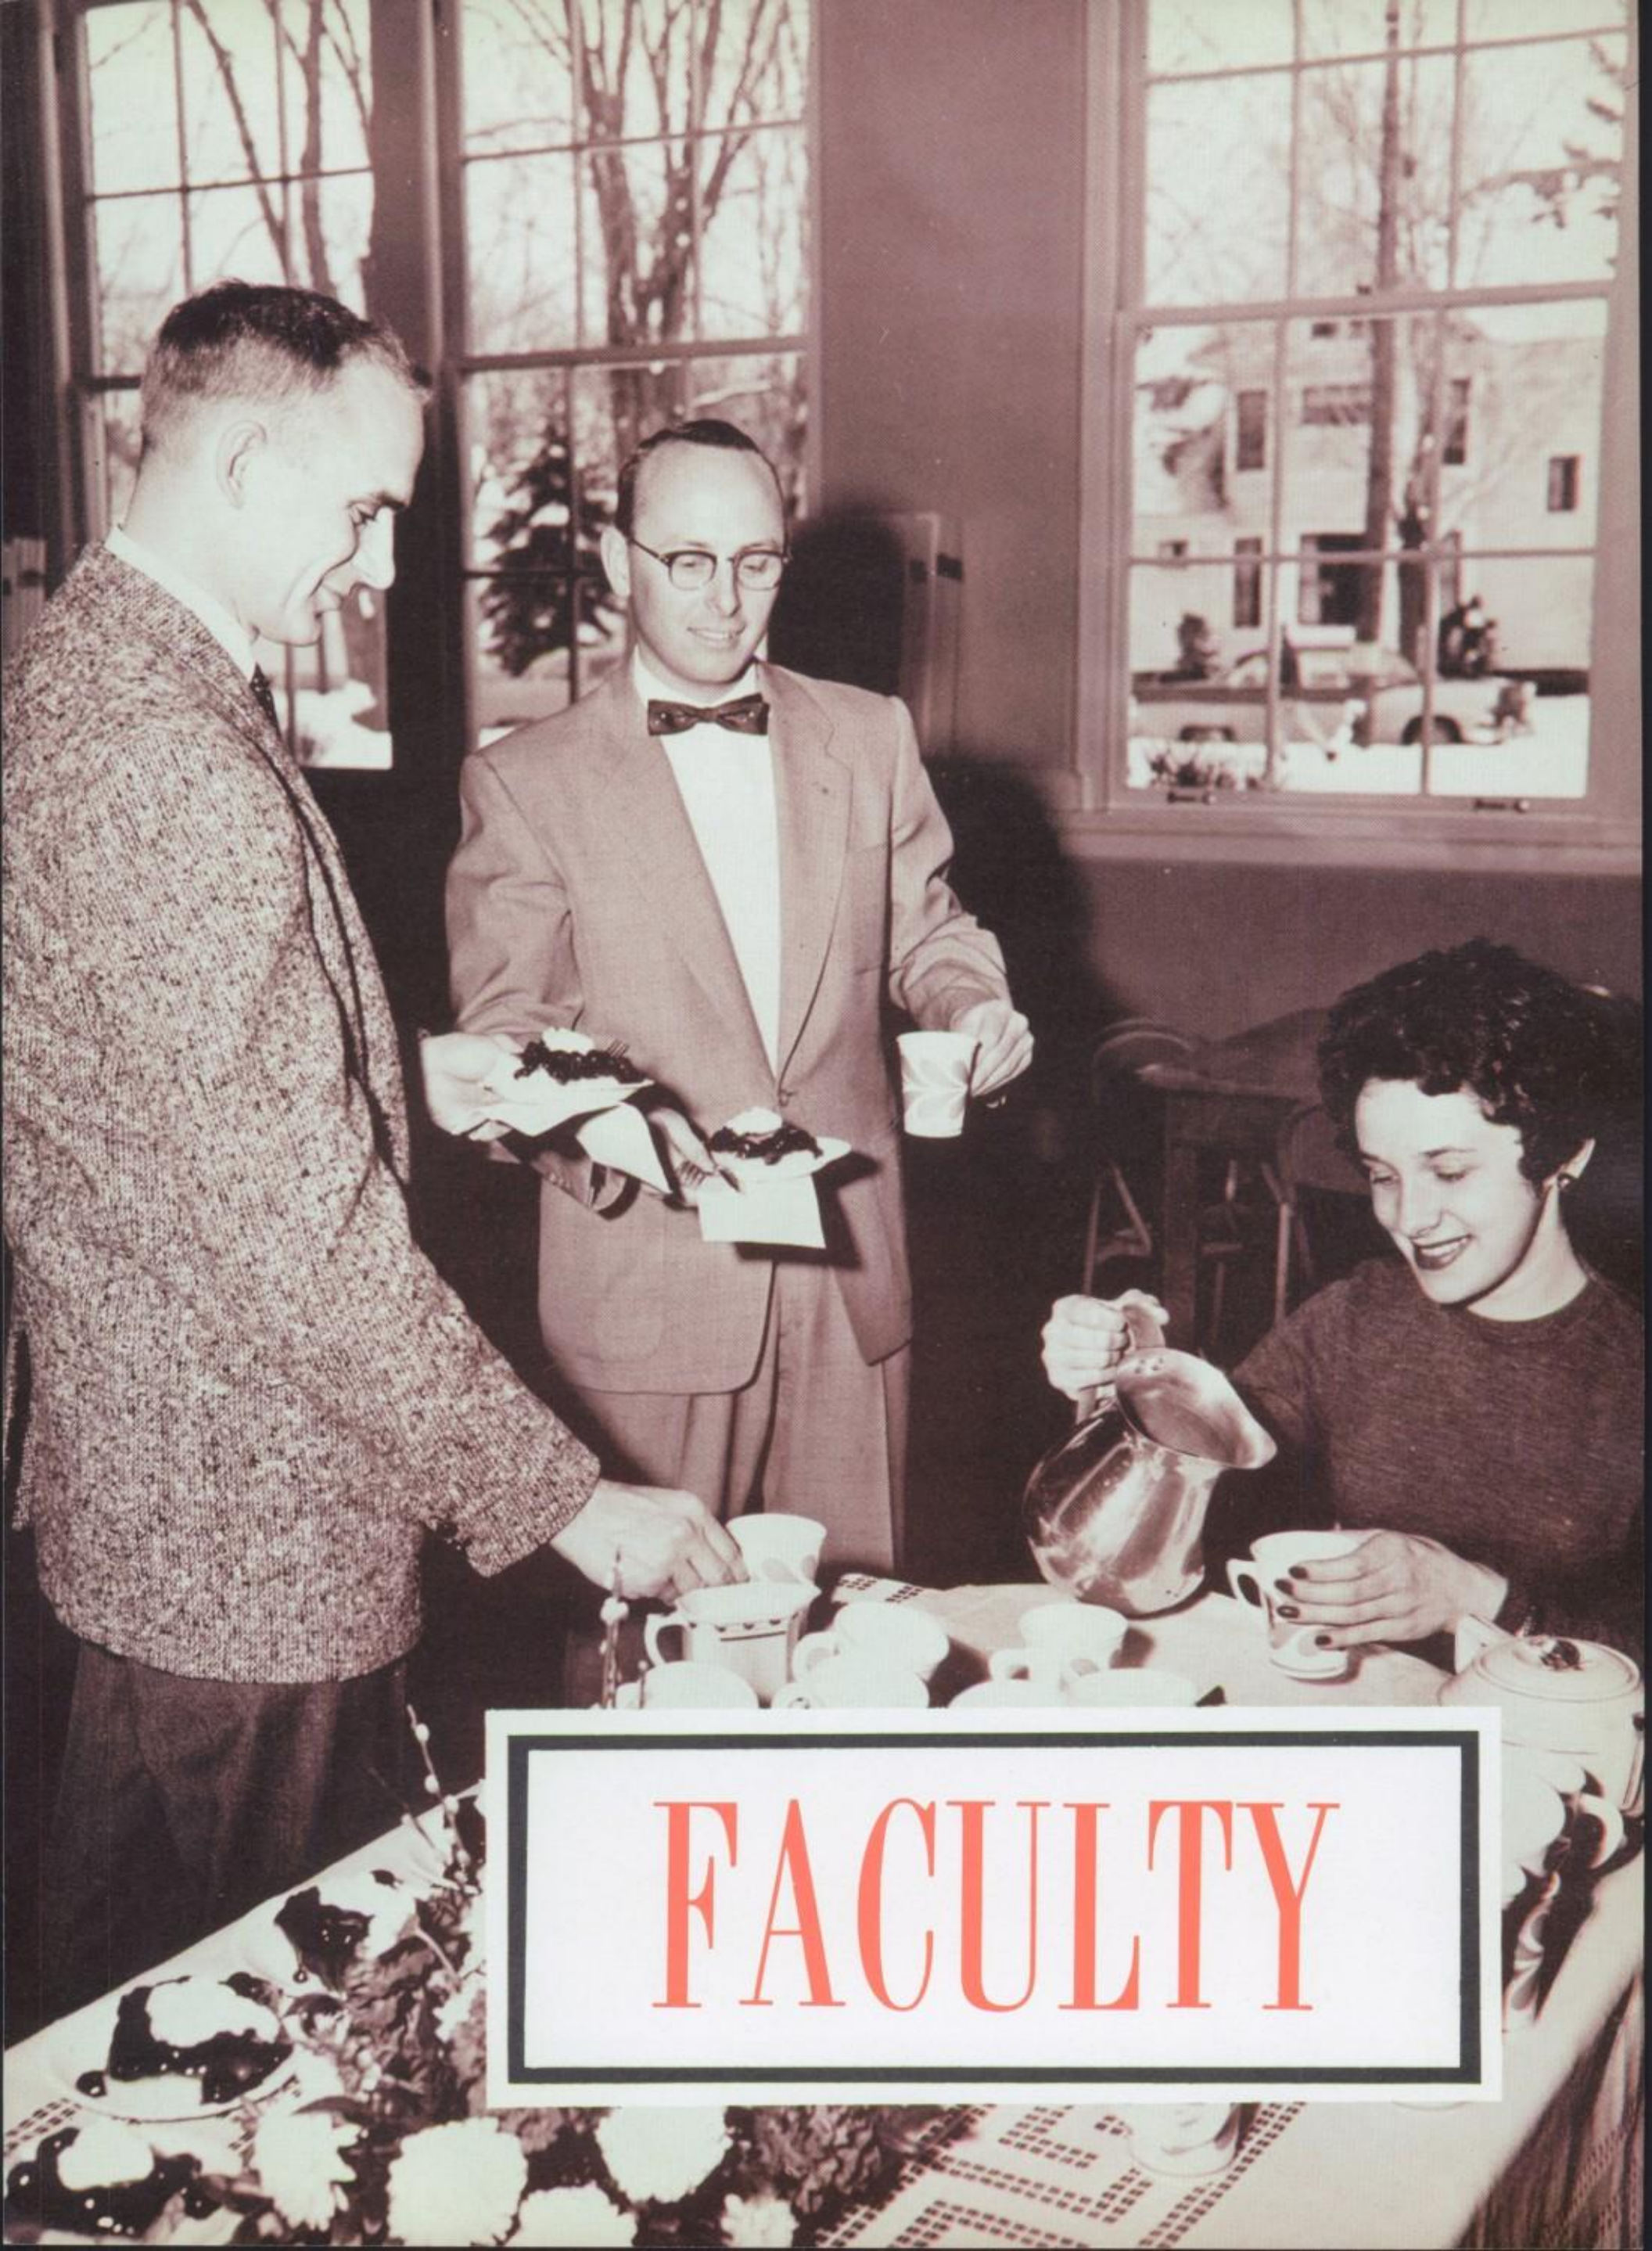
Dedicated to . . . MISS LYDIA BECKER

Conscientious . . . hard-working . . . energetic . . . sympathetic. These words seem to be the key to the unusual success of LYDIA BECKER, a woman who has contributed much to this school through many years of service and devotion to our students.

TO MISS LYDIA BECKER, teacher of physical education, advisor of the G.A.A., and friend to everyone, we dedicate our 1960 WAHISCAN.



FACULTY

Greetings . . .

When the 1960 Wahiscan is presented for your perusal, another school year will be drawing to a close. During the present term you have had ample opportunity to exercise your intelligence and initiative in many valuable and interesting activities. The regular classroom program has been stimulating only to the degree that you have helped make it so. If during the year your acquaintance with the great books in the school library has stimulated your thinking and aroused your curiosity, you are well on the way to becoming an educated person. To a large extent, life is what you make it and each day should provide you with experiences that will enrich your lives and broaden your horizons.

We are indeed proud of the many splendid achievements of Wausau High students, and the faculty is second to none. Our standards are high and must continue to be so if we are to maintain a reputation for excellence in academic achievement.

Congratulations to those of you who are responsible for the 1960 Wahiscan and to all who have had a rewarding school year.

Most sincerely,

G. W. BANNERMAN

Characterizes the Outside Interests of Our Teachers

This gentleman, Lowell W. Johnson, is on the go every hour of every day. He coaches the Varsity B squad in football. He is head coach of the tennis squad. He referees athletic contests, is a ski instructor and member of the ski patrol at Rib Mountain. He serves as a Y councilor and teaches four classes per day. He enjoys all of these things immensely. However, his greatest interest and joy is his family. In the picture at the left you see him enjoying a quiet evening at home in the company of his wife Arlene and son Jay.

Mr. Clifford Westlund, English instructor, is a man of many outside interests. His hobbies include photography, gardening, raising African violets and oil painting. He is especially skilled at capturing the moods of rural landscapes and putting them on canvas. His subjects have been taken from his home environment at Eau Claire and here at Wausau Senior high school.

Woodworking has been more than a hobby to G. K. Rosenhauer, editorial adviser of the Wahiscan, for many years. Since 1938 he has spent his summer vacations in the contracting business, building and remodeling cabins, cottages, and one and three bedroom homes. In the picture at the left he appears in his work shop, instructing his son, Bruce, in the use and value of a portable, power skilsaw.

. . . IN MEMORIAM

VIRGINIA HULBERT
Foreign Language Instructor at Wausau Senior High, 1945-1959

The death of Miss Virginia Hulbert to Wausau Senior High is a very deep loss. She became affiliated with the Wausau Schools in the fall of 1945 and has served the system faithfully and generously for fourteen years by teaching Latin and English. Her enthusiasm for the world of the classics has been an inspiration to her students. She is giving this lifetime of work in the form of scrapbooks and slides to the school. Her devotion to the cause of scholarship grants has helped many students of Wausau Senior High to continue their education.

Miss Hulbert was very respected, loved, and admired by the faculty and the student body. We shall mourn the death of this beloved lady who died at the age of sixty in a local hospital after a lingering illness.

Seniors in Flight . . .

Students who graduate from the Wausau Senior High school take with them unparalleled experiences and memories.

As sophomores we spent much of our time observing and learning from the more experienced juniors and seniors. We took a more active part as juniors, sponsoring formals and completing, possibly, our toughest year of high school. Now, as graduated seniors, we look back and recall our sports, our dances, our elections, our exams, and our class play; continually reminiscing--wishing that it would begin once again, and at the same time, glad that it is over.

We've graduated from sophomores to seniors, but the lesson we've learned is not one of graduating from, but rather graduating to: to the knowledge of education, of fellowship, and to the fact that a great challenge lies before us. The benefits we've derived are immeasurable and their effect is intangible. The thoughts of our Alma Mater will linger long after we close the doors of Wausau Senior High School behind us.

As the class of 1960 we are now ready for "Our Flight" into the future; no longer a flight into the unknown. We are now ready to meet the challenge necessary for the success and happiness for which we are striving.

Careers for the Future

We, THE SENIORS OF 1960, are rapidly approaching our graduation exercises. On June 9 we shall begin to realize how much the future and its outcome depends on what we do. For some of us the immediate future means more education, further training in our chosen profession. A few of us will enter the military service; some will get married and settle down; others of us will obtain jobs right after graduation.

Throughout the senior section we have tried to depict various professions and occupations which we, THE GRADS OF 1960, shall enter.

Medicine for a Future

In my younger years, like most little kids, my ambition varied from day to day. On Monday my dream was to become a brave policeman. Tuseday I wanted to be a heroic fireman. Wednesday I was determined to become a tough cowboy. Thursday nothing would interest me more than being an aviator, and Friday I wanted to be the handsome family doctor.

I guess I have never forgotten those childhood fantasies, for the medical profession still appeals to me. My interests in school have pointed toward that profession, and I feel now I will be happy in it. There is of course more schooling involved, but the rewards in the end seem well worth the effort.

Certainly medicine is a very demanding profession, and one which requires time and patience. While in the hospital, watching the doctors help care for and treat their patients, I realized why they are willing to devote time and patience. The satisfaction gained from serving society is a rewarding experience never to be forgotten.

Law for a Future

The highly complicated arrangement of legal terminology by which men govern and control their lives has always been a primary interest of mine.

My favorite subjects have always been in the social and political science area of study. I have spent a portion of my free time reading some of the works pertaining to political science, law, and its deversified fields. After talking with several attorneys I find myself more convinced that law would be best for me. Most of my occupational interest tests have implied that law would be in keeping with my aptitude and abilities. These reasons have convinced me that there is a fine career and rewarding opportunity in the study and practice of law for me. It is a profession in which one can specialize or generalize, and it allows one to find a permanent usefulness in the society of his fellows.

Teaching for a Future

I chose teaching as my career because I want to see what it will be like to be on the other side of the desk, so to speak. At eight A.M. on Monday mornings I long to see the bright-eyed, smiling faces of approximately thirty students who are literally "thirsting" for knowledge. A-h-h, a teacher's dream. Teachers have in their hands "Young, tender and innocent" minds that they can mold at will into the citizens of tomorrow. Still dreaming, seriously, though, I really do believe that teaching gives one the opportunity to watch pupils grow in grace and stature into young adults, besides leaving the teacher with a feeling of satisfaction and accomplishment. This is what I hope to achieve.

Nursing for a Future

At one time or another just about every little girl, with a romantic picture of the white uniform and cap in her mind, wants to be a nurse. I felt the same attraction as a young girl, but now it means more to me. The White uniform is a symbol of the responsibility a nurse must carry, the responsibility of other people's well-being and lives. Out of this comes a personal satisfaction of being able to help in a way that few others are able to.

Looking at it in a practical way, nursing will provide security. There is always a job open for a nurse during war or peace. Should I marry and have a family, there will still be the opportunity to return to my profession. I'll be doing things I like and in that way will be getting the most out of life.

SENIOR SCHOLASTIC STARS/TOP TEN PERCENTERS

The twelve seniors shown above have earned the highest grade point averages in the senior class of 445 people. Along with the twenty-nine people shown below they comprise the top 10% of our senior class.

Besides excelling in their studies, these people have contributed much to the activities at Wausau Senior High School.

The Wahiscan Staff would like to congratulate them on their excellent scholastic records and wish those who will be continuing their studies next fall the very best of luck.

Wausau Week Festivities . . .

OCTOBER 12-16, 1960

The much anticipated Wausau Week began October 12th, with an assembly introducing the teachers in charge and the queen candidates. The girls campaigned for two days and the elections were held on Tuesday. Thursday night there was a movie and a dance until 9:30; then the show began. Pat Mages MC'd the following program: Cheerleaders from WHS and UW—the "old teachers" stunt—Miss Wisconsin, Mary Alice Fox—a rock & roll group, the Continentals—the pep club stunt—the "new teacher's" stunt—and the grand climax of the whole evening, the crowning of the queen. The students chose Linda Halverson to reign over Wausau Week. Immediately following the crowning there was a dance held in the gym. Friday was Madhatters' day. Both teachers and students participated in mad-hat wearing. A pep assembly touched off an explosion of the week's pent-up energy, and Friday evening brought the great game between Wausau's Lumberjacks and the LaCross Red Raiders. Wausau defeated the Raiders — 33-6.

U. W. cheerleaders, Jane Fechtner, John, and Gary cheer Wausau on.

Faculty chairmen: Boettcher, Bell, Roehm, Hylkema, and Putman.

STUDENTS AT WHS

The thoughts that passed through my mind during that electrifying moment when Pat announced my name are out of the reach of any written explanation. By the time the crown was resting on my head, I realized that I had received one of the greatest honors of my life time. To be cherished forever are the exciting experiences of that wonderful week.

Sincerely yours,

Linda Halverson

Dancing Through The Year

The many forms of dances held from football hops to formal affairs all helped to make our social year at Wausau Senior High a complete success. The various dances held at holidays and the many dances held at noon provided a wide field of recreation needed to make this year one of the very best.

The sounds of Sid Kyler's Orchestra were heard at various dances. A good sound is necessary for dancing, and the Sid Kyler style was a favorite of the students.

The Christmas Dance...

A Christmas tree, packages, lovely sprays, and a surge of holiday spirit filled the scene. With the sound of sleigh bells, Santa Claus bounded through the door with his bag full of tricks. Joining his elves, he proceeded to bring a cheery note to the listeners. Fancy cookies and tangy punch served by the German Club added that extra zest needed to make the dance an evening of enjoyment, long remembered.

Holiday Dance

French pastel poodles eating sweets decorated the gym for the annual Candy dance. Arnold Fenske received his royal title as a result of selling the most pounds of candy in the taffy sale this spring. In the court were the high salesmen of each day.

At the dance the highest boy salesman and the highest salesgirl were awarded the Sticky Sam and Sweet Chew trophies.

Dancing Under the Stars

Silver stars sparkled from the ceiling overhead and a sleigh filled with packages decorated the Elks Club for the annual Junior Girls' Holiday Dance. The dance was given by the junior girls and their parents independently. This year's theme was Crystarella Fantasy.

From the dance proceeds, the girls gave $200 to the Waugonian Scholarship Fund. General Chairmen of the dance were Mary Totsch and Diane DeHaven. The Advisor was Miss Schadney.

Bal Masque a masked ball theme, consisting of a large carousel, the French quarter of New Orleans, and intriguing masks set the scene for the annual Junior Prom. The carousel embellished with birds and animals was the center decoration. The back wall with 3-dimensioned trees, hanging Spanish moss, giving a lush misty effect looked very much like the real New Orleans. Street lamps lighted the edges of the ball room. The punch stand was made of two large comedy-tragedy masks, and punch and napkins were served from the mouth of the mask. The entire theme was in dark hues such as red, blue, black and green. The ceiling was covered with a motif of streamers and balloons.

The Prom was held on May 13. King Mike Schmidlkofer chose Candy Howes as his queen to reign over the exquisite ball.

Juli Green was chairman, and Mr. Woods served as faculty advisor in the production of the Prom.

Residence: Istanbul, Turkey

For the second time a student from Wausau Senior High was chosen by the American Field Service to travel to a foreign land. During three wonderful months, Pat Tollefson lived in Istanbul, Turkey, with Mr. and Mrs. Abdurrahman Ciftci. While there she visited the Acropolis in Greece, the Blue Mosque, old Byzantine church, and many museums in Turkey. Pat says, "Into your future try to tuck a plan for travel. I'll always be grateful for the opportunity I had."

Elias Kusaym, our 1960 exchange student, hails from Beirut, Lebanon. He is the oldest of four children. His father is an accountant with the Contracting and Trading Company of Beirut. Elias who is very interested in sports likes swimming, soccer, and basketball. He plans to return to his home town where he will study to become a physician.

Pat Tollefson takes a dip on a hot July day in the Marmora Sea near Istanbul.

Elias completes another day of school at WHS.

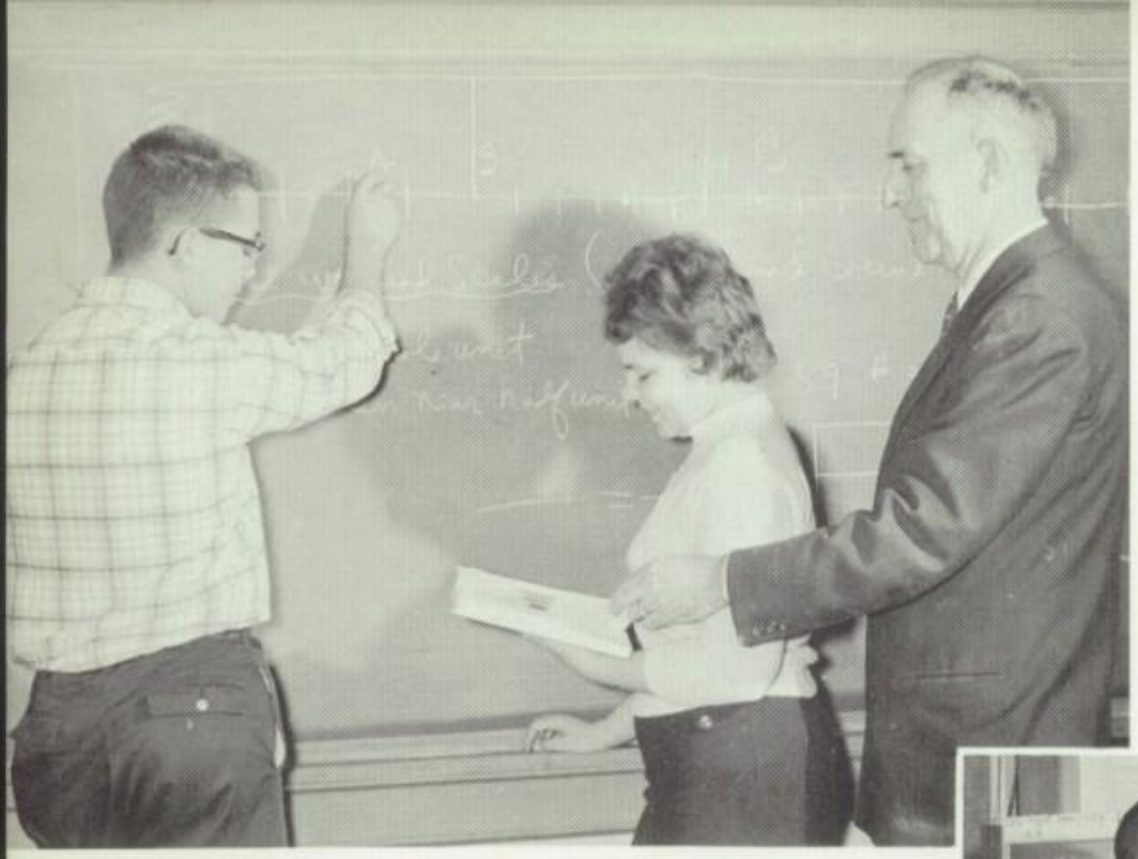
ACADEMIC

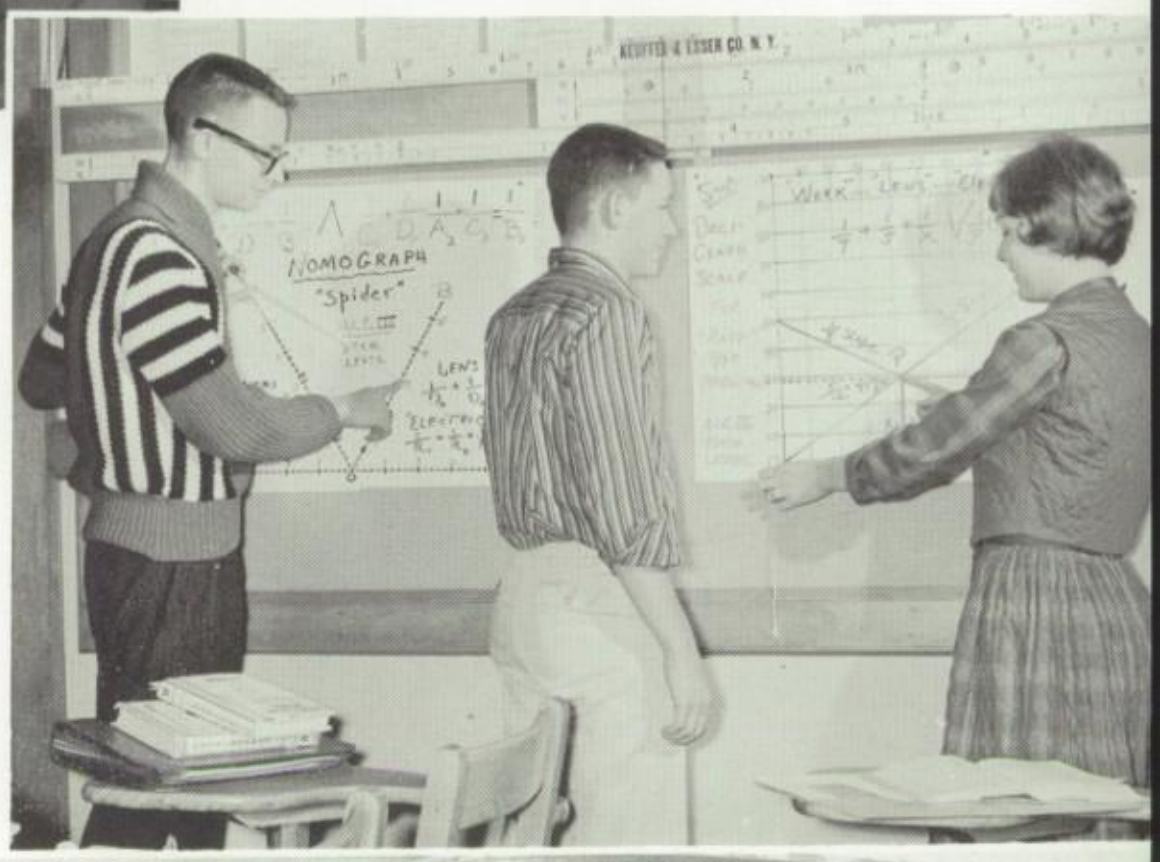
MATHEMATICS . . .

MATH Consumer math is a semester review of basic arithmetic for seniors who do not pass the junior mathematics test. It develops ability to apply computations to every day affairs in the business world. Algebra I through IV deals with equations, formulas, graphs, and logarithms. Geometry teaches appreciation of geometric figures in our environment, and the study of relations between lines and planes.



CONSUMER MATH Mr. Luttrell helps Bernard Bluhm and Joyce Holzmann work on scales.

SOLID GEOMETRY The construction of pyramids, spheres, cylinders, dodecahydrons, and hyperboloids of one sheet are an important part of Geometry III.



ALGEBRA Bob Ubbelonde, Lynn Schultz, and Candy Howes demonstrate the use of graphs in algebra class.

. . . SCIENCE

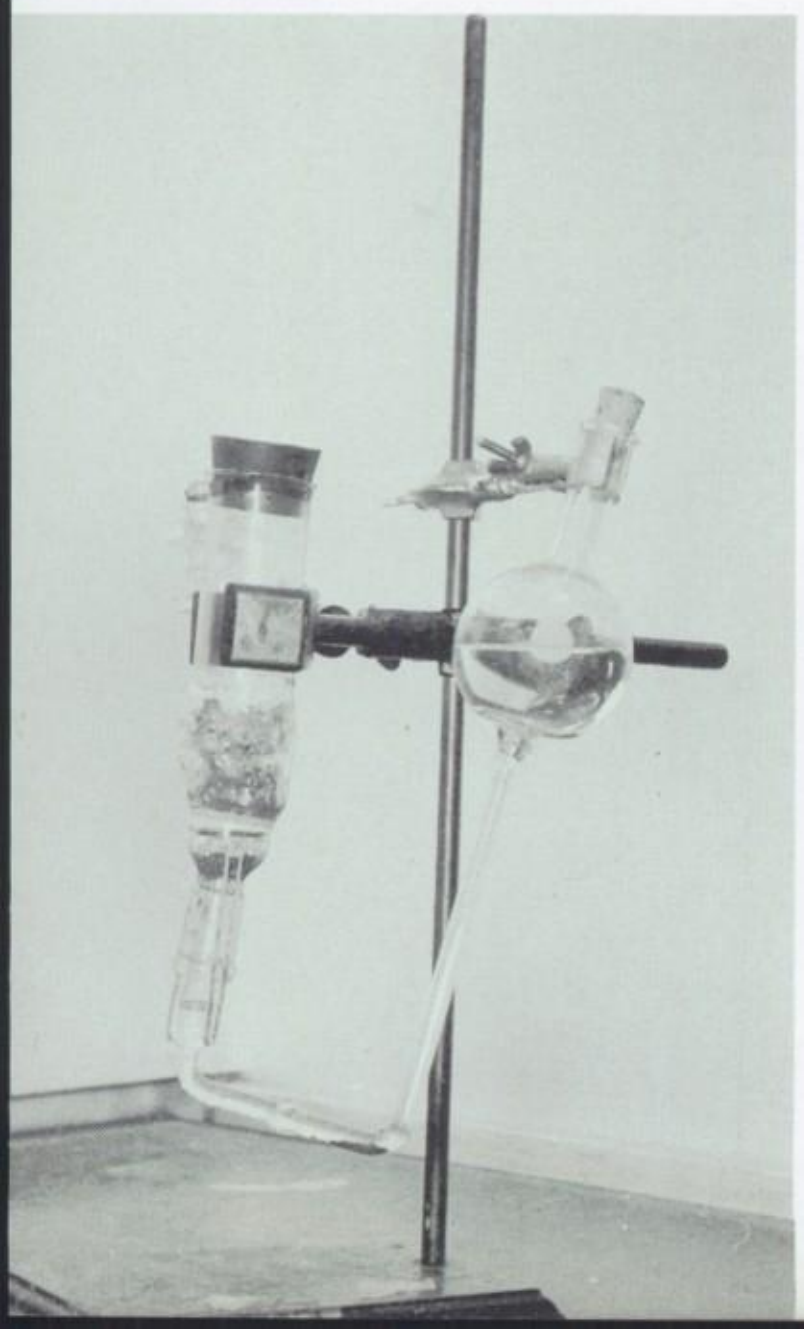
PHYSICS is the study of force and energy and their uses. It develops an appreciation of the orderliness of nature and the dependence of society on science. Two levels in the courses allow advanced students to perform complicated experiments.

CHEMISTRY emphasizes the importance of research to the development of new products we use. The student, making his project for the science fair, employs scientific thinking and comes to understand the problems faced by the modern chemist.

BIOLOGY Nothing that moves escapes the observant eye of the sophomore in this class! The student comprehends the inter-relationship between nature and its vast natural resources and man. A college preparatory course is available for more progressive students.

Bruce Buhmann and Marcia Doede experiment with weights and pulleys in physics class.

Erecting an automatic hydrogen generator is one of the many laboratory tests performed in chemistry class.

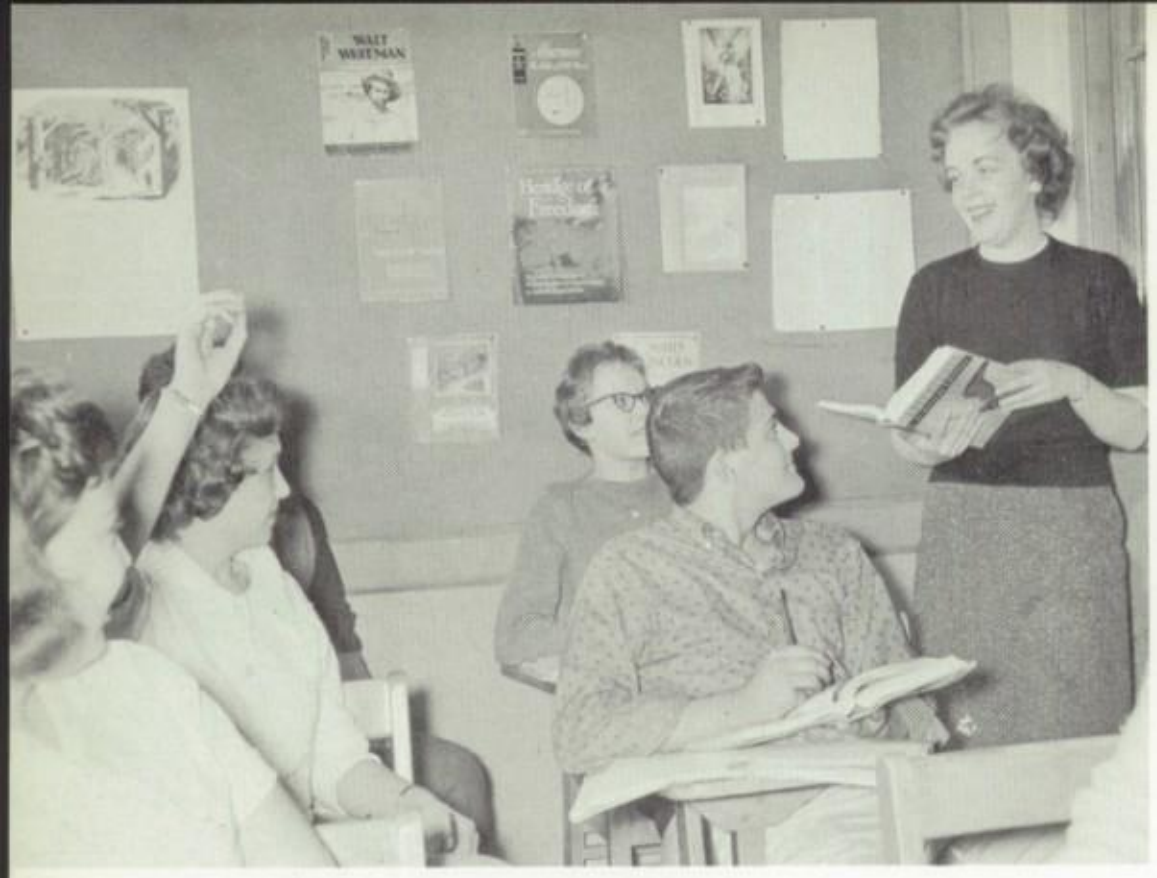


The anatomy of a frog is studied intently by Sharon Ruth and Terry Jacobson.

LANGUAGES

AMERICAN LITERATURE is a junior English course in which the student studies the background of his country through its literature. Poetry, prose and drama from the colonial period to the present are included.

SPANISH Student interest in Spanish this year resulted in a third year class for the first time. Another feature is the Spanish Pronunciation Contest, in which three Wausau High students placed in the state finals.



Miss Schilling answers Barbara Schwoch's question about the play "Out Town" in American Literature class.

The costumes of Peru are examined by Spanish students Barbara Gahnz, Nolan Yelich, and Bonnie Zitlin.

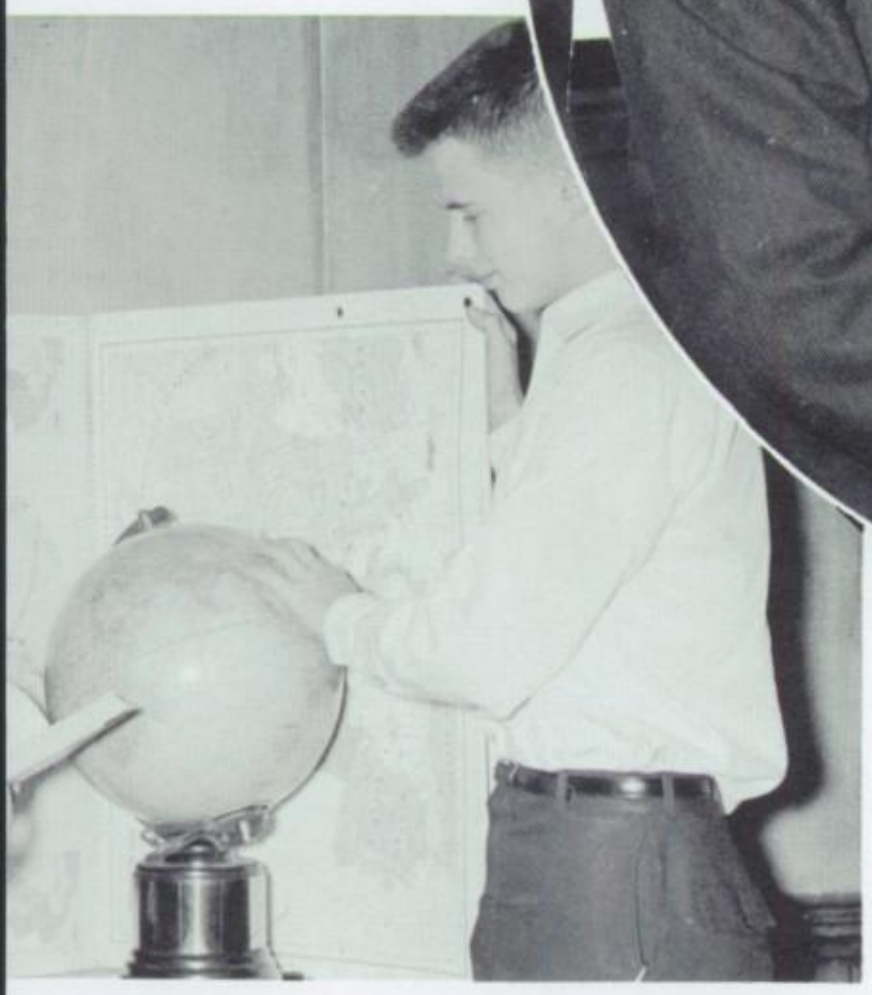
The use of the tape recorder to improve pronunciation is demonstrated by Lavora Kufahl and Miss Ellefson in German class.

GERMAN In this two year course, basic grammar and vocabulary are developed. Tape recordings and records are used extensively to perfect pronunciation. German Week, held every year, gives the students an opportunity to wear costumes and have a "Kaffee Strundel."

SOCIAL SCIENCE

AMERICAN PROBLEMS, a senior social science course, concentrates on the study of current problems through panel discussions, guest speakers, and movies. Preparing the student for the vocational world is accomplished through aptitude testing.

Rabbi Matzner and Katy Tranetzki look over the chapter on religion in the American problems book.

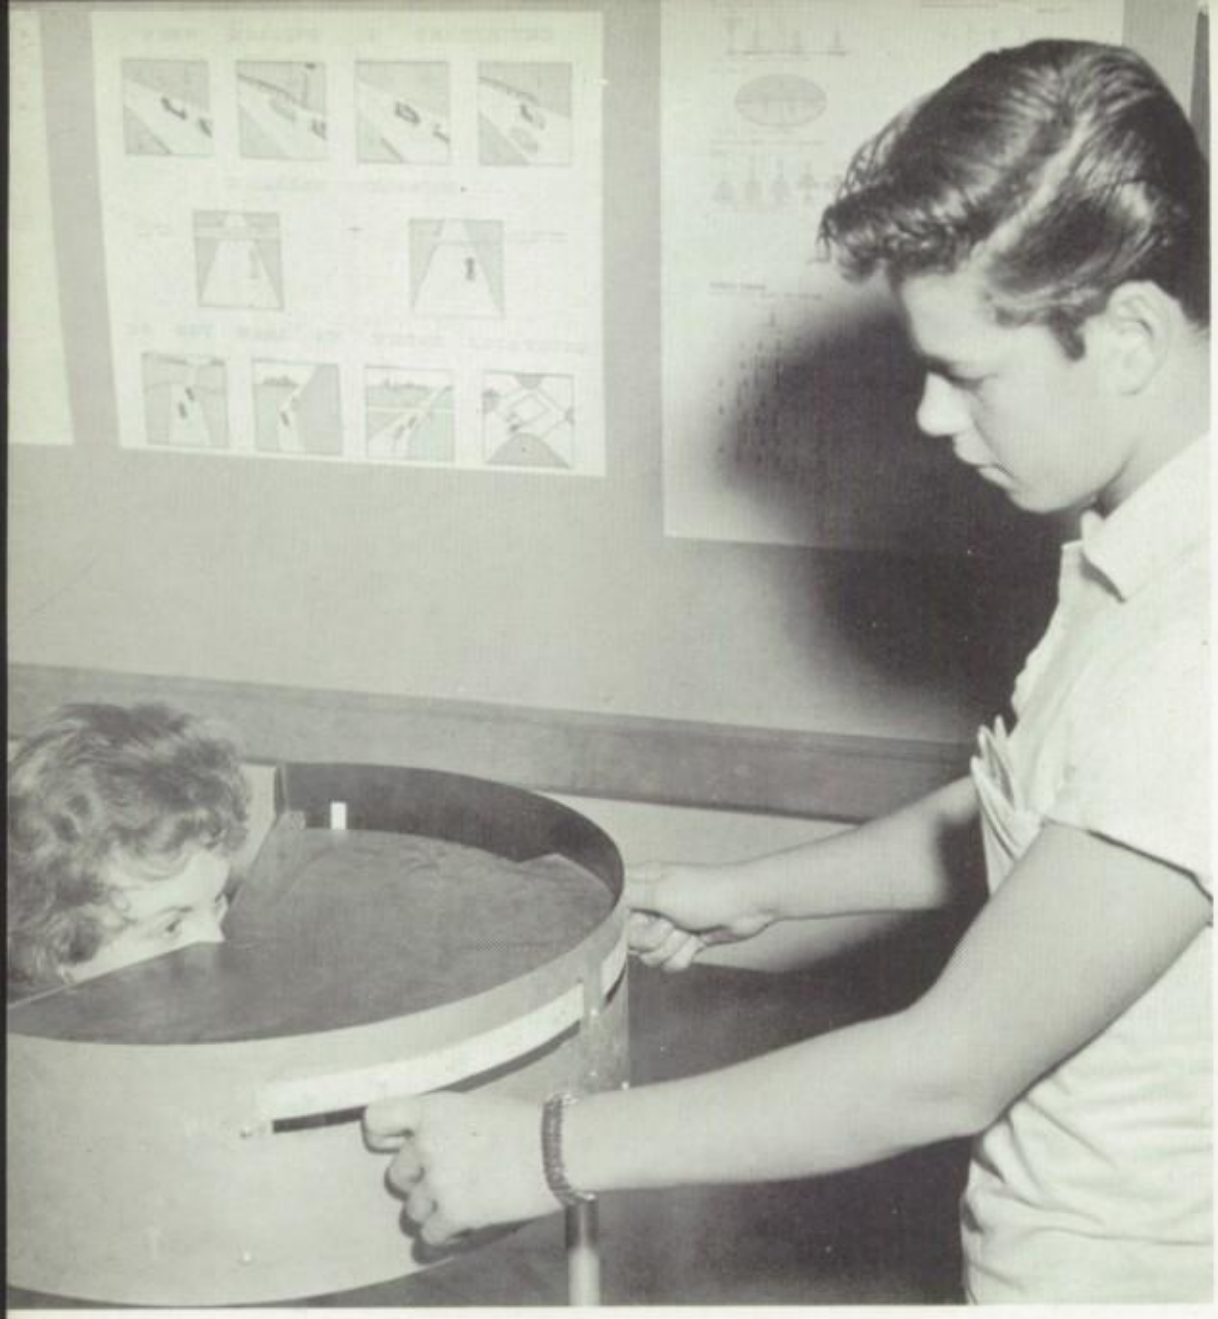


Sylvia Marek and Terry Kennedy compare the location of countries, using the globe, map, and World History book.

U. S. HISTORY As Patrick Henry said, "I know of no way of judging the future but by the past." In studying U. S. History, the student discusses ideas and principles useful in solving today's problems. He learns how and why the present came to be.

WORLD HISTORY The purpose of this course is to develop an understanding of present-day issues and the contributions of people to the world through the study of the past. Current events magazines, film strips, and movies are supplements to the course.

Joyce Gering, Lowell Baumgardt, and Tom Hudson listen attentively as Mr. Henderson describes the early development of America.



Wayne Kroeplin tests the angle of vision of Bonnie Hintz in Driver Education, a sophomore course.

Marston Whittle proves his point to an absorbed audience, Betsy Slayton and Pam Flannery in Public Discussion.

Before the day's road lesson, Mr. Curtis explains the instrument panel to Virgene Young.

DRIVER EDUCATION, a sophomore requirement, teaches the prospective driver the general mechanics and principles of operating a car. Tests are given to determine the student's reflexes, depth perception, and steadiness.

PUBLIC DISCUSSION "Resolved: That the federal government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions." This class gives the Wausau High School debaters a fine opportunity to practice with their coach, Mr. Marquardt, for the debate tournaments.

DRIVER TRAINING An elective for juniors, the purpose of "behind-the-wheel" training is to give practical experience to the student learning to drive. The driver may obtain his license after completion of 18 lessons and the state drivers' test.

Juniors On Right Track . . .

Looking back upon our Junior year, we realize now that it was certainly a busy one. Our classroom work and social activities provided us with many a challenge. Those of us who plan on attending college found we must settle down to prepare for a great change. Many of us made definite plans for the future and began to plan our course accordingly.

This may have been a year for hard work, but it was also a year for fun. The Holiday Dance, sponsored by a group of junior girls during Christmas vacation was a huge success. The Junior Prom, 'The Brain Child" of the junior class, was our farewell to the graduating seniors. It was the "REALLY BIG" social event of the year.

Now, with a little more experience and knowledge, we've found we're on the right track for a successful senior year.

It has been a most challenging and interesting year with new fields to explore and new goals to reach scholastically, athletically and socially. Wausau Senior High has offered us many new advantages in extra-curricular activities. Through them we have gained the confidence that we needed to participate and succeed We have found that the faculty and upper classmen were very helpful to us.

As class officers we feel it an honor to have been chosen to represent the Sophomore Class of '59 and '60, a class that is definitely down to earth and going places.

About 11:00 a.m. the delicious aroma of food starts to creep through the building. The cafeteria staff under the direction of Mrs. Tritten is getting the food ready to be served. Baked beans, chop suey, casseroles, and chicken are among the main features. Next year when the new unit is completed, the whole school will go on a different schedule for the noon hour. The food will be cheaper because we'll be under the federal food plan, and as a result more students will be able to afford it.

BIG RIVERS

MARINETTE

A balanced offense and defense paid off in touchdowns as the fighting Jacks defeated the Marines of Marinette by a score of 33 to 6. Starting early in the first quarter, the Lumberjacks scored with little trouble. Continuing throughout the rest of the game the scoring was led by Pat Sullivan, Porky Fish, and Mike Matuszak who racked up some of the best yardage of the early year.

LA CROSSE

Like a boxer who strikes a crippling first round blow, Wausau punched across an early score and kept La Crosse Central on the ropes the remainder of the game to take a 33-7 win. The Jacks rammed home their first touchdown six plays after the opening kickoff, and La Crosse never seemed able to recover from that blow.

CONFERENCE CHAMPS

EAU CLAIRE

The Wausau dressing room "rocked and rolled" with jubilation as Wausau edged Eau Claire 10-6. Gary Schulz made the first major contribution in the third quarter when he kicked a field goal to break a scoreless tie. Those three points held until early in the last period when Eau Claire made it 6-3. With only a few minutes to go, Wausau got its chance and scored to win 10-6.

MENOMINEE

A well balanced offense and defense paid off for Menominee, as they walked off with 13 points to beat Wausau 13-7. The game, postponed from Friday to Monday on account of bad weather, was Wausau's first and only loss of the season. The scoring and yardage gains were led by Pat Sullivan, Aubrey Fish, and a series of passes to Mike Schmidlkofer.

They Get the Team In Shape . . .

The football season of 1959 ended with the young Lumberjacks as co-champions of the Big Rivers Conference, sharing the honors with Menominee, Michigan, the only school to make Wausau taste defeat. The real thrills of the season go to the very fine and hard fought battle against Madison West, the score 20 to 19, and the climax of the season in the game against Eau Claire, our strongest rivals. The Jacks here put together their very best effort and defeated a very fine Eau Claire team 10 to 7. Prospects for the 1960 season are bright. A large number of lettermen are returning with 7 out of 11 of the defensive unit ready to lead the way.

WARMER . . . WARMER . . . COLDER . . . WARMER . . . These are words often heard by the managers around Thom Field during the football season. The prepartaion and issuing of equipment, the stocking of the first aid, equipmnet, and coaches rooms, and the other detailed work connected with being a manager all lead to a well-run, and well-organized football season.

Wausau is a football town. The 1960 season gave birth to another story to add to the repertoire of Wausau High School football team tales. The idea and picture of the Wausau High School football team doing pushups in the snow brought international recognition to our fair city. The picture at the bottom of the page appeared in fifteen or more prominent newspapers throughout the world. A few of these include: "The Miami Herald," "New York Tribune" in New York and Paris, France, "San Francisco Chronicle," "Pacific Stars and Stripes" overseas in Korea and Japan, "San Jose (California) News," "Atlanta (Georgia) Constitution," along with several others.

The Cross Country season again proved to be very successful. By winning seven dual meets, the harriers ran their winning streak to 50. Honorary Captain Weinkauf was undefeated in dual meet competition. Other seniors who placed high were Dick Fulmer, Mancer Cyr, and Jack Donner. Junior lettermen included Roger Gereau, Dudley Paulus, and Lee Zielsdorf. The outstanding sophomores were Jim Edwards, Ron Yonke and Jim Bradley. VARSITY BASKETBALL . . .

Our basketball schedule during the 1959-60 season included games with many of the best teams throughout Wisconsin. Because of this type of competition, we did not have an impressive record during the regular season and we entered the tournament with nine wins and nine defeats. However, during the last three games of our regular season we were showing signs of developing into a good unit and as we progressed through tournament play we hit our peak and went "all the way" to become State High School Basketball Champions.

The strength of our team hinged on excellent team play and good balance. Our first team consisted of five players and our first substitute, Jim Hickey, playing a big role in our success as did our other starters. Members of the starting "five" during most of the season were Joel Ungrodt, Gary Kirk, Mike Schmidlkofer, Mancer Cyr, and Tom Wendorf. These players carried most of the load throughout the season. Other squad members did much to help our team reach their peak at tournament time—Dick LaCerte, Tom Weinkauf, Lee Zielsdorf, Aubrey Fish, Dick Kastenschmidt, and Chuck Weincauf challenged our first stringers to do their very best throughout the season and comprised a spirited "bench." The result of the combined efforts of our entire squad was our first State Basketball Championship since 1938.

Hail to our own State Basketball Champions — 1960!

JACK TORRESANI
"B" Team Coach

Wausau's 1959-60 B-team basketball squad finished with a 9 8 record. Highlights of the season were impressive wins over Madison West, Wisconsin Rapids, and Rhinelander. Lack of defensive skills and rebounding were two major factors that handicapped the team.

Several members of the team are expected to give able assistance to the varsity team next year.

Eleven teams, including Wausau, entered the WIAA state skiing championship held here in Wausau. Competition was in two classes: downhill racing and slalom. Competing in these two events throughout the year and for the championship were Fred Fox, Roger Luedtke, John Schranz, Jim Larson, Mark Mueller, and Tom Hoerter. These six boys really went all out in skill and sportsmanship to make this a most successful season, winning three trophies and all the meets in which they competed. Fred Fox and Roger Luedtke achieved some of the best time in downhill and slalom throughout the year.

CURLING AT W.S.H.S.

Curling as a sport in the Wausau Senior High School has just completed its 13th season. During the season our club has participated in bonspiels at Wausau, winning the 3rd event, Poynette, winning the 2nd event, Madison, winning the 1st and the 2nd events, and Portage. The Alan Wirt rink won the sectional playdown at Stenves Point and went on to win 2nd in the state championship at Portage. Locally the club took part in the Leadman's and Mixed Bonspiels. The club championship (Lattimer-Gress) trophy was won by the Alan Wirt rink. Curling with Wirt was Robert Baumann, 3rd, Jim Strachovak, 2nd, and Jim Manitzki, Lead.

Curling as a sport is open to all boys who possess a keen desire to play and to have some fun. Each boy who participates is instructed in the fundamentals before he starts to play. The curling season extends from late November to March.

Roy,
Good luck next year to a little guy but the best of our co-rec softball team.
Dave Buzza

Winners of the Madison Individual Bonspiels include:

The curling club earnestly supports the game of curling which has gained recognition as a competitive sport and recreational contest. Here, Alan Wirt, an active member of the curling club, and skip on his own rink, delivers a stone during a local bonspiel. The club devotes its time to learning and studying the game in addition to actually conducting an intramural contest play off, and entering teams in out-of-town contests.

Under the close scrutiny of Coach Harry Johnson, Tom Plishke and Roger Luedtke sweep a stone into the circle, while Darold Folz and Scott Duncan look on. These curlers, along with the entire squad, feel the enjoyment which comes from the fellowship and sportsmanship while participating in the game. It takes many hours of long, continual practice to become an accomplished curler.

BOY'S GYM CLASSES

Boys' gym classes comprise all high school boys not out for a sport or those taking driver's education. Meeting twice a week, the boys really get a workout from advisors, Win Brockmeyer, Al Gabrilska, and Lowell Johnson. Because of the construction on the playground, the boys sprinted to Thom Field during the gym period to play football. The coach, either walking or riding a bicycle, always accompanied the boys. When the weather turned too cold for outdoor sports, the boys worked out in the gym. Basketball and calisthenics then took over the curriculum with the boys working out on the rings, high-bar, and parallel bars. For half of the semester, they also used the tramp. Then as spring appeared baseball, volleyball, and running exercises kept them in good physical condition.

Led by an excellent group of sprinters, pole vaulters, high -jumpers, and long distance men, the Wausau track team took a start on the "right legs" for the 1960 season.

Coached by Bill Smiley, these fellows have been working hard the past semester to get in shape for the rough meets ahead. All members, which comprise about fifty, have kept managers Glen Conrad and Earl Mielke busily at work.

To date, the Wausau High track team has won all four of its meets, and the team shows real progress of going "all the way."

A few of the top men of the team include: Don Fenton, Dennis Bell, Bob Monk, Vern Bergelin, Joel Ungrodt, Jim Bellas, and Dick LaCerte, not to exclude all the other boys that comprise this most promising team.

These two boys work closely with Al to insure order and fun to all concerned with noon hour activities.

NOON HOUR ACTIVITIES

Noon hour activities cover a large variety of games. In the early fall softball is predominant, and also returns in spring. During winter homeroom basketball is played in the boys' gym, and ping pong is a big favorite, with all ping pong tables in use. Caroms, cards, and dartball make up the remaining activities. All the activities are under the direction of Al Gabrilska, and all games must be checked out of his office. The game rooms, located in the basement of the old building, are filled until early spring, when the warm sunshine finds the students out-of-doors.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS . . .

These are the girls and boys that cheered our Jacks ON TO VICTORY! They have led the students in cheers at all our football and basketball games and promoted pep throughout the school year. They have put on many humorous pep assemblies, and during Wausau Week they sold red and white pom pons, organized a pom pon section, and sold Wausau Week buttons. Before the basketball tournaments in the spring, they sold red and white beanies. Their motto, as evidenced by various posters throughout the school, was ON TO STATE!

This is the first time in several decades that there have been boys on the squad. Buzza, Shannon, and LeSage have done an excellent job of proving that boys can be just as effective in yell-getting student response and arousing school spirit as the girls. Nice going fellows!

G.A.A. WINNERS . . .

The curling season this year proved very successful for Weichmann's championship rink. They closed with six wins and only one loss. Eight rinks took part in the event.

The championship volleyball team, the Sky Blues, was captained by Rosalie Wasmundt, and was the only one of six teams that remained undefeated.

There were twenty-three teams that took part in bowling for G.A.A. this year. Judi Manecke captained the gold medal winners, who were undefeated, and Carol Jaeger captained the silver medal winners. Girls with the highest individual bowling scores were Gretchen Johnson, Joan Wells, and Bonnie Seiler. Congratulations to all of these girls.

In the ping pong tournaments Donna Rahn defeated Liz Seidel to take first place.

The Championship G.A.A. Basketball Team, the Yellow Trotters, was captained by Rosalie Wasmundt and was the only team out of the six undefeated at the end of the season.

EXERCISES . . .

Warming up exercises and posture corrective activities are popular with many of the girls and are used as introductory class work. In spite of sore muscles that sometimes result, the girls execute the exercises with vim and vigor.

"Keep your eyes on the ball" took on a new meaning this year in the Junior and Senior girls gym classes. With donated clubs and plastic balls and mats, the girls learned a few of the basic fundamentals of golf.

GOLF . . .

GIRLS SPORTS

WORKING ON THE RINGS

Persistence and determination (and strength!) are important and necessary when the girls work on the rings. The satisfaction that comes with mastery is reward enough for their efforts.

The range is short, the "point of aim" is low, the enthusiasm is high, and the results are good when the girls release the arrows. All archery is done inside with the Sophomore and Senior classes taking part. "Weight of the bow," "nock the arrow," "three finger draw," and "anchor" are terms that become valuable knowledge to the Sophomore and Senior archers as they learn this popular recreational activity.

Twice a year we have the student council installation program where all officers, commissioners, and representatives are sworn into the Student Council. The vows are administered by their advisor, Mr. Roeske.

At the regular meetings, held every two weeks, the Council takes care of problems that are presented by members or sent in by the faculty.

This year the special problem was action on traffic and the parking problem around school. Also, to get students to be more interested in their council.

The standing committees of the council are the social, school affairs, finance, publicity, and pep. Special committees are set up to take care of the candy drive and the Junior Red Cross collection.

String, brass, percusison, and woodwind sections make up the Wisconsin Senior High orchestra. On Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays the orchestra members meet as a class to practice. The string is the regular orchestra group, while the other three sections are adopted from the band. From these orchestra sections, there are also solos and ensembles. They play classical and semi-classical music.

The activities of the year were a Christmas program, a concert for junior high, and a scholarship contest at D. C. Everest High. They played in an orchestra contest — class A, played in the school operetta, the "Fortune Teller," and gave a special concert here in the late fall for the parents. This was all done under the direction of Mr. Grill.

BAND . . .

Mr. McDonell's band put in a real hard year of much practice and many accomplishments. Their projects were: playing at halftime shows of all home football and basketball games, school pep assemblies, the Veteran's Day parade and the Varsity basketball tournament, also, the Tophatters Show, the Junior High concert, solo and ensemble festival, Concert Event Festival, and the Rural Youth Day Parade. An extra function of the brass, woodwind and percussion sections was to play with the school orchestra.

"This has been the busiest year we've ever had in our choir," said Miss Pierce, the vocal director.

A summary of the vocal year includes these: Christmas program for Kiwanis Club, Christmas caroling, Christmas Assembly, Operetta, "The Fortune Teller," Solo and Ensemble Festival, and on Baccalaureate Sunday.

The Girls' Glee Club participated in the annual Christmas Assembly, assisted with the operetta, and entered the Spring Music Festival.

The male ensemble is a special vocal group separate from the choir and the Glee Club.

CONSERVATION . . .

The call of the great outdoors is the basis for membership in the Conservation Club. These boys are interested in the general field of conservation.

During formal meetings, there were speakers from the various fields of conservation, also, films to cover many aspects.

The improvements which have been accomplished at the school forest this past year were done primarily by members of the conservation club under the advisorship of Mr. Curtis. They worked on various projects, creating new trails, constructing foot bridges across the stream which runs through the forest, cutting Christmas trees, improving the club house, and planting trees.

HOME ECONOMICS . . .

The 1959-60 Home Economics Club is under the leadership of Ruth Zimmerman, president; Barbara Durkee, vice-president; Charmaine Semerau, secretary; and Shirley Brandt, treasurer. This club is open to senior girls interested in homemaking. Grooming, etiquette, personality, and dating are topics that are discussed.

These topics aid senior girls in their social contacts by giving them more knowledge about being polite in polite society, and will be a great aid to them after they are out of school, as well as in school.

The club conducts a money-making campaign, and the proceeds are used to contribute to the Waugonian Scholarship Fund.

MUSIC CLUBS . . .

Opera! Jazz! Western! All these are part of the Music Clubs' program through which members broaden their musical knowledge. You merely sit back and enjoy the sound. "The First and Third Wednesday Music Clubs were both educational and entertaining."

The actual programs are planned and introduced by Mr. McDonell, and the machine operation of the tapes and recordings is done by Miss Ellefson. We were shown the entire scope of music, past and present.

STAGE CREW . . .

These boys deserve many thanks for the hours they have given their school. Every time a play, Top-hatters show, Stunt Night, or assembly came up, they were there at work behind the scenes. Public address, sound, and lighting equipment all must be properly assembled and operated.

The stage managers were Bill Gjetson, first semester, and Roger Revie, second semester. Electrician Heads were Tom Hudson and Jerry Hagengruber, P. A. Heads, John Jajade and Jim Hoyt, and curtain constructions, John Pijan, and Steven Nielson.

PROJECTIONISTS CLUB

Did you ever try to pick out the club that gives the most to the school? The club that best fits this description undoubtedly is the projectionist club.

Members of the club are trained in operating all projectors and recorders. They give services to the school by operating machines during their free hours in the various classrooms, assisting the clubs during the activities period, and running movies in the assembly hall during the noon hour.

Officers of the club are Jerry Streeter, Errol Ahlers, and Gary Weikel. The advisor is Mr. Staats.

G.A.A.

The girls of Wausau High tried their hand in the competitive team and individual sports of volleyball, table tennis, bowling, curling, badminton, basketball, golf, and soft ball. Teachers supervised these sports; each sport has a senior head and a junior assistant.

This year's club officers were: Judy Fraedrich, president, Jean Beckman, vice-president, Sharon Kautzer and Ruth Zimmerman, publicity chairmen, Mary Kell, secretary-treasurer. Miss Becker is the advisor of the G.A.A.

Waugonian Council members of the year were Afton McMahon and Bonnie Krueger.

Each year new activities are added as demand and facilities appear.

SKI CLUB . . .

"Experts" in the Ski Club gave a demonstration at Thom Field on how to ski. Movies were shown on that subject, and also on ski areas in the United States and Europe. The club sponsored ski excursions and "get-togethers." These occurred at Rib Hill and Camp Ten near Rhinelander.

Miss Bonvincin, Roger Luedtke, Fred Fox, Barbara Gahnz, and Nancy Bush were the leaders of this year's club.

The membership was open to anyone who is interested in skiing.

Mr. Hylkema is the Advisor of the club. Each year the members elect fellow students to hold the office of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, reporters and sentinel. 1960 officers are respectively: Gene Christian, Wayne Sann, Jerry Kluetz, Robert Becker, Tom Kurth, Jahn Rakow.

JUNIOR DAIRYMEN

An affiliation of the group is the Junior Dairyman's Club. These boys carry out a Dairy Herd Testing program in school, and learn more and better ways of good dairy management. Members have a chance to participate in our state association by attending the district meetings and the state convention. Club officers are: Wayne Sann, President, Merlin Goetsch, Vice President, and Gerald Voigt, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Hylkema advises this club also.

SKYROCKET

Aside from just being fun, a position on the Skyrocket gives students a look into the field of journalism.

The Skyrocket, a member of the National Scholastic Press and Quill and Scroll, was published approximately every three weeks. Under the leadership of Carlyn Young, Nancy Peabody, Barb Goetsch, Ken Klug, and Barb Boehmer, the very large group of sixty-seven staff members published eleven issues.

Straight news, interviews, features, humor, editorials, and publicity are some of the things that went into each issue.

Advisors for the editorial staff and the business staff were Mrs. Scheurman, and Mr. Baranowski, respectively.

WAHISCAN . . .

"Toburen's on the phone!", "Where's Fara?", "Who hid dummy number 2", "Hand me that blue pencil." "Toburen's on the phone!", "Rosy, have you seen Fara?", 'We've got to have that art work". "FARA!!!"

These are the familiar sounds of 207 — sounds behind a WAHISCAN.

The more than 30 members of the 1960 WAHISCAN STAFF have worked from September 1 to this very last moment of the school year for the sole purpose of giving you an annual of high quality.

Every sixth period, innumerable fourth periods, evenings on several occasions, and full days were spent filling the 208 pages of this book with fresh, interesting and attractive layouts.

We have taken extra pains and have poured a great deal of "sweat and tears" into this, the 44th volume of the WAusau HIgh SChool ANnual. A larger volume by 16 pages, this book has been printed 1640 times. It's the largest we have ever produced. We hope you like it, for we're quite proud of it.

Under the direction of their advisor, Mr. Swenby, they carried on the following activities: in the beginning of the year they helped with the kindergarten registration in the public schools. There was a survey taken of the 1959 graduates, and they helped with this project. There was a scholarship given towards the teaching career, and money had to be raised. They also conducted a candy sale.

The officers of this group were Juli Green, president, Pam Flannery, vice-president, Vivan Zahn, secretary-treasurer.

ASTRONOMY

Horoscope, anyone? Astronomy Club members joined together each week to study the stars.

The meetings of the club have been devoted to explanation on the structure and operation of simple telescopes. Also, there were discussions of various topics, such as planets, stars, constellations, and other heavenly beings. Mr. Ridge was the advisor of their club.

SENIOR GREGG

A guest speaker was the basis of each of the Senior's Gregg's meetings. These speakers discussed business problems, and the members learned the qualifications necessary for positions in stenographic and clerk-typists jobs.

Members of the club were given details on Civil Service and state examinations. They were encouraged to participate in these tests while in school.

Club officers were: Sharon Kautzer, president; Helen Marquardt, vice-president; Pat Puarieo, and Joyce Prast, Waugonian representatives, and Mary Kuehl, secretary-treasurer. Miss Swain was the Senior Gregg advisor.

JUNIOR GREGG

The goal of the Junior Gregg is to help inform girls interested in becoming a stenographer and to tell the duties of this profession. The club enjoyed a successful year. The highlights were: Talks by a businessman and a secretary, a Christmas party, and a field trip through Employers Mutuals.

The club officers were Virginia Hahn, president, Karen Henke, vice-president, Sandra Dunst, secretary, and Nancy Hoeft, treasurer. Karen Henke and Mary Funk served as representatives of the Waugonian Council. The very capable advisor was Miss Donna Roehm.

SCIENCES . . .

Chemistry, Biology, and Physics are the three laboratory sciences taught here. Each has a respective club.

Chemistry Club is designed to help members learn more about chemistry than is offered in the classes. This is done through guest lectures, movies, and presentations by other club members. A carmeled apple sale was their main project to earn money for the Waugonian Scholarship Fund.

Biology Club tried some of the more rare projects such as: "unusual foods" including ants, grasshoppers, actops and clams, the disection of a squid and a visit to a funeral parlor.

Physics Club delved into the world of machines, levers, and mechanical processes. This was to add to their knowledge of the principals of physics.

Club advisors were Mr. Harry Johnson, Miss Bell, and Mr. Dzubay, respectively.

ART CLUB

Busy young people! These are the members of the art club, and their year was filled to the brim. At the first meeting they organized and elected their president, Rueben Seehafer, vice president, Mary Heinzen, and secretary, Karen Gorski. They went to the museum to hear Mr. Schoenberger's talk on totem. From there the club went on to do various things. They had a Christmas party and viewed each other's centerpiece creations, visited the Wausau Club lounge to observe its Artistic design and modern decoration, and had an artist come in to talk about his work. Mr. Reinemann, their advisor, planned this interesting program.

CAMERA CLUB

Ken Kohnhorst and Bonney Pfaff were elected president and secretary, respectively, of this year's Camera Club. Each year the club devotes its meetings to topics related to taking pictures, developing film, printing, and enlarging. During one of their meetings, they took a trip to a local photography shop to see actual operation of this occupation. Mr. Shawl, a real shutter-bug, is the very able advisor of the club.

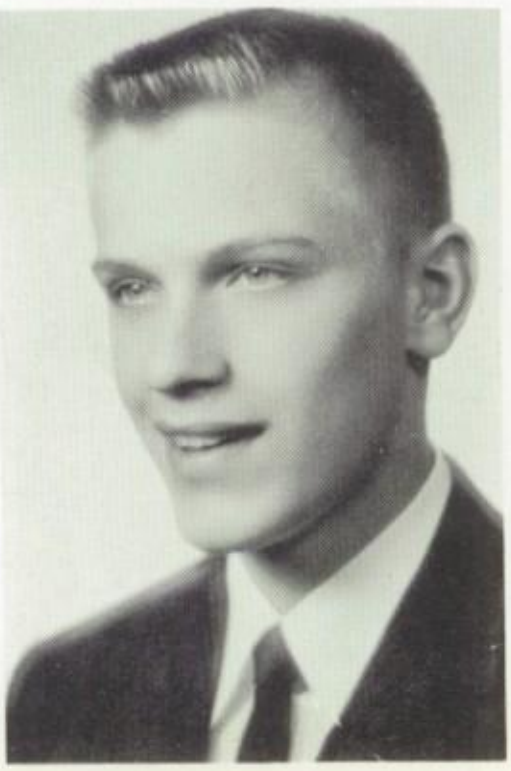
DEBATE . . .

Although the debate team this season started with only one experienced debater, they pulled out of the season with a grand record. The team was a winner in th district and sectional tournaments. At Madison they placed fourth in the state finals.

In the regular debate season, Wausau won the Whitefish Bay individual meet with six straight wins in the "A" division. At Merrill six straight wins took the individual "B" division.

The seasonal record for affirmative team was 16 wins — 6 losses. The negative team had 17 wins — 5 losses. The "B" division had a fine record of wins of 90 percent of all its debates. Captains of the affirmative and negative teams were Richard Fulmer and Howard Gutgesell respectively.



HOWARD GUTGESELL

STATE CHAMPION

Howard Gutgesell went to the top in state forensic competition. After a very favorable season in district and regional tournaments, he won the gold medal at state and went on to the national contest.

MATHEMATICS CLUB . . .

Each first Wednesday of the month the Math Club met down in Mr. Luttrell's room, 108. At the first meeting the members organized, electing Richard Fulmer, President, James Larson, Vice-President, Richard Greenblatt, Secretary, and Roger Smith, Reporter.

At the succeeding meetings the club had various activities. Among these were: a field trip to the National Cash Register Company office on Sixth Street here in Wausau. Two movies were shown on modern math from the University of Wisconsin, two sessions on problems and a talk was given by a University Extension professor.

Many of the members entered the State Mathematics Contest on the local level, and through this, raised ten dollars for the Waugonian Scholarship Fund.

The entire year was a very worthwhile and educational one.

SLIDE RULE CLUB . . .

Mr. Hagemann was this year's advisor of the Slide Rule Club. Student members were elected to the various offices.

Slide Rule Club was concerned mainly with the use of slide rules. These little rules with their many uses for which there are many needs, are interesting little time savers in the math field. The club takes upon itself to teach the members how to use one of these complicated helpers.

At the meetings, slide rules were supplied to the members and they learned the fundamentals of usage. By learning to use a slide rule out of class, they actually aided and raised their classroom ability.

Oganizations brought club officers Judy Lerch, President; Ellen Urban, Vice-President; Michelyn Will, Secretary; and Barbara Goetsch, Treasurer. The school nurse, Miss Cronkhite, is the club advisor.

SPANISH CONTEST WINNERS

A Spanish contest was held at the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee for students taking Spanish. Members of Miss Bonvincin's Spanish classes went down there to read, speak and converse in Spanish, competing with other students from various parts of the state.

Are you going to be a nurse? A new club has been added for your benefit. The Future Nurses Club's purpose is to open a knowledge of nursing to those who would like to know more about it.

EXPLORERS . . .

Exploring has its merits from discoverers, pioneers, inventors, and leaders who had the intelligence and courage to search for the new and better. The spirit is what is sought for in boys who belong to the Explorers' Club.

Highlights of the club were going places, meeting people, service for fellow men, and looking ahead. Associations of the explorers were with men in the community . . . advisors and consultants," says Mr. Baranowski, the faculty advisor. It is a new club at Senior High this year.

TOP HATTERS OF 1960 . . .

MR. McDONELL, Faculty Advisor

DICK FULMER, Student Leader

Roger Luedtke leaps high to gain the attention of Jeanette Pregont and Judy Stav in the Tophatter show dancing to "Walk, Don't Run."

A duet by Dick Fulmer on the trombone and Duncan Pledger on the French horn.

Ingrid Deacon, female vocalist.

Ted Anderson, male vocalist.

" 'Ladies and gentlemen! This is Top-atters 1960." With these words, John pened this year's show. Even while he as speaking them, I turned to the band, napped my fingers twice, and "For ancers Only" blared big and bright and ast into the filled auditorium. Not even hen did I realize what a tremendous en-erprise had been undertaken in The how. I am just beginning to be aware f the benefits that have been mine as tudent leader of the group. The things have learned and the experiences I have hared combine to make the time I have pent in Tophatters one of most impor-ant segments of my high school educa-ion. It has been a wonderful thing to tand in front of the band and hear, Ladies and gentlemen! This is Tophat-ers 1960.' "

FOREIGN LANGUAGES . . .

Guten Tag! Bonjour! Salvite!

These are greetings to you in each of the foreign languages that are represented by a club here at Wausau High. They are: the German Club advisor, Miss Ellefson, the French Club, Mrs. Schuerman advisor, and the Spanish Club and the Latin Club, Miss Bonvincin and Mrs. Horkan, respectively.

The clubs study the culture and customs of their respective country. One week is set aside as a special week for each language. There is a German week, a French and Latin Banquet, and a Spanish festival. Guest speakers are invited and a special program is set up for each meeting by club members.

The club presidents are Ron Yonke, German, Jill Yankowski, French, John Oppenheizen, Spanish, and Mary Kell, Latin.

DRAMA . . .

The Drama Club provides an opportunity for students who have an interest in theatre to learn more about it and to have an opportunity to gain some very elementary experience. Because the organization is large most of the activities are observation.

A highlight each year is the program presented by the Reader's Theater of Downer College in Milwaukee. This year Irene Hanson, a senior student there, made her second appearance before our group with a program of readings about humorous women.

Some of the members participated in impromptu skits that were cleverly contrived and well-acted.

Another annual project of the club is a trip to Madison to the Drama Institute sponsored by the University of Wisconsin. This year 60 students saw the University Players production of William Tell.

Other meetings were spent in viewing cuttings of the three-act plays and in listening to forensic contestants in interpretation.

Student officers were: Dan Litzer, president, Wayne Blaschke, vice-president, Barbara Ghanz, secretary, and James Seehafer, treasurer. The advisor was Miss Stelmahoske, our ever active teacher in the field of drama.

UTHROTAR . . .

"Service above self" is the motto of the Uthrotar. It is an affiliation of the Rotary Club for young men, and each month a meeting is held which Uthrotar and Rotary members attend. It is an opportunity for the Business leaders of today and tomorrow to mingle and exchange ideas.

"You Can't Take It With You"

The Senior Class chose as their play, a perennial favorite, YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU, for their very successful fall production. The phisolophy of the play is appropirate for our own hectic days, advocating as it does, standards other than wealth and prestige.

Brockmeyer, student director; Stelmahoske, director; Bouvat, prompter; Heinzen, student director and production manager.

Mrs. Sycamore tries her hand at art.

Bill Gjetson's characterization of Grandpa Vanderhof was a perfect blend of warmth and humor. Also memorable in leading roles were Gretchen Johnson as the effervescent playwriting painter, Penny, Roger Luedtke as the volatile Kolenkov, ballet teacher, and Marilyn Peterson and Tom Plischke as the young couple providing the play's romantic interest. Acting with verve and finese were Sue Goldberg and John Fara as the quaint Ed and Essie, and Pat Mages and Tim Piehl provided the play with hilarious moments as the bombastic income tax collector and the droll Mr. DePinna, "the discus thrower."

"The Diary of Anne Frank"

Senior High's choice of spring play for 1960 was a beloved drama that won every major theatrical honor the year it was presented on Broadway. These awards were a tribute to the playrights, Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett and the members of the first cast, but even more particularly to the shining image of a little Jewish girl, who at the age of fifteen, died in the Nazi concentration camp at Bergen-Belson in March, 1945.

Though the play is based on the diary of a thirteen-year old girl and its triumph lies in the delicacy with which it preserves the grace of her spirit, it is also the story of the great trial of her family and their friends during their two years in hiding, fighting boredom, bickering and misery in an attic in Amsterdam.

At this writing, the WHS Thespians are working hard to achieve a successful interpretation of their inspiring play.

BADGER GIRLS AND BADGER BOYS

A "state" within a state, Badger Boys' State convened a Ripon, Wisconsin, and Badger Girls' State was at Madison The "states" were divided into cities and small representative governments elected, just like a real state, including campaigning.

The two parties for the "states" were the nationalists and the federalists. The Badger girls were very fortunate in that they were able to hold an actual legislative session in the Capital building. Actually, the purpose of these small "states" is to better acquaint the students with government and to make them better qualified and more intelligent voters It also encouraged a greater interest in politics and government.

While there, the students were given excellent talks by outstanding speakers on topics concerning government and taxes.

School advisors were Miss Tobey for Badger Girls and Mr. Keeler for Badger Boys, who incidentally has been a counselor at Boys' State for fourteen years.

WAUGONIAN COUNCIL

BADGER BOYS - Standing: Fox, Luedtke, Gutgesel
Sitting: Donner, Cyr

The main purpose of the Waugonian Council was to encourage clubs to take on money-making projects for the Waugonian Scholarships to be given to deserving seniors.

The Council is composed of representatives from the following girls' clubs: Girls Athletic Association, Senior Gregg, Junior Gregg, Home Economics, and the Y Teens. This year's members were Afton McMahon, Joyce Prast, Ellen Albright, Pat Puariea, Karen Henke, and Mary Funk. Miss Tobey, girls' counselor was advisor.

In past years clubs had been generous in their gifts to the Waugonian Council, but this year there was reason for them to be even more as it was impossible for the fund-raising talent show to be held because of the death of a beloved faculty member, Miss Virginia Hulbert.

MONITORS . .

A welcoming "Hello"and any desired information will be given to all visitors by our monitors. Attendance slips are transmitted along with special passes from room to room. Monitors run special errands and serve as teacher assistants.

These busy people move back and forth through the halls numerous times each day, keeping everything in order attendance-wise. It's a big job and the monitors function well. This is done under the direction of Miss Nelson and Miss Hemker.

PEP CLUB . . .

The Commissioner of Pep, Sue Goldberg, and the cheerleaders, Diane O'Leary, Jeanette Pregont, Ellen Albright, Ilene Zimick, Judy Stav, and Barb VanNess, led the Pep Club's activities aided by Sandy Wiechmann, Vice-President, Mary Totsch, Secretary and Donna Roehm, club advisor.

The selling of booster buttons, a skit for Wausau Day, and a Mad Hatter's Pep Assembly were some of the Club's main projects during Wausau Week.

Other activities included the selling of Pom-pons and "W" Beanies, creating posters for athletic events, and helping to promote school spirit.

Sue Goldberg, Sandy Wiechmann, Mary Totsch

CUSTODIANS

Serve our school . . .

From the time they raise the flag in the morning until the time they take it down, the custodians are kept busy every minute. All have specified duties which range from sweeping, to shining, waxing and to washing. There are 140 gallons of floor wax used a year. They sweep 60,000 square feet of floor space a day. That adds up to 1,000 pounds of dirt and dust a year. They repair broken lockers and windows, and keeping the school warm. They shovel the walks and mow the grass. Under the direction of Harvey Ramthun, these people make WHS a school to be proud of and more pleasant to attend. We are deeply indebted to them for the services they perform throughout the year.

Transportation for hundreds.

Did you know that over 100 students from the towns of Berlin, Hewitt, Rib Mountain, Stettin, and Texas travel between 10-20 miles to school every morning? Eighteen drivers and substitutes transport these students over 733 miles per day, for an average of 65 miles per bus.

Our bus drivers must meet five requirements. They must be twenty-one years of age or over, physically fit, morally straight, pass the Wisconsin School Bus Driver's Examination, and hold a valid Wisconsin Driver's License. Eight of these drivers are graduates of the vocational driver training course. They are Bliese, Gohdes, Hotchkiss, Kiekhafer, Schwede, Nienow, Hieronimus, and Lemke.

The students who travel on the buses deeply appreciate what these men do for them during the school year.

These buses are capable of producing 2550 horsepower. No wonder they get the students to school on time.

INDEX

Editors: Myrna Lau and Sue Ortwein

If you had been in 207 during these past nine months, you could have heard a few of these questions: "How do you spell Brodjieski?", "Is it a boy or a girl?", "John Fara, would you please stop pestering me?" or "Is it Gary, James, Jimmy, Martin, Raymond, Richard or Russell Schultz?"

Despite these questions, and countless others, we have been able to compile a few facts. There were 814 boys and 812 girls enrolled this past year. (Girls did you take advantage of this? Remember, this is LEAP YEAR.)

This year the Schultz and Schulz clans spiced the index by being listed a combined total of twenty times. The Goetsch's came in second with 15 listings and the Krueger-Krieger, Schmidt-Schmitt, and Mueller-Miller's were tied with 12 each. Kastenschmidt was the longest name with 13 letters. There were approximately 1810 names included in the index.

We hope that none of the names have been misspelled or have been given to the wrong people. But, if there are some mistakes, please accept our apologies.

Myrna + Sue

Ray -
You really did a great job in C.C. Keep up the wonderful work in all you do.
Good Luck
Marcia Cy

Ray, I hope you have fun this summer & be sure to come back next year. Sandy Wright

Dear Ray (alias "Butch")

Well, next year you'll be a mighty Senior. I don't know if it carries as much "pomp and glory" up here, as it does at home, but I'm sure you'll make it the best year yet.

I'll never forget the many panics we've had together. The times when you used to slup (?) over at our place. Eh? But we sure had fun. Then there were all of those wild camping trips you fellows went on. I don't have the slightest idea what you would have done without women around. Have you been fishing up at Ed's cottage lately? I hope you realize the place behind the garage is leased to you. In case you fellows ever want to build again.

Golly Ray! The fun we've had over the years just can't be written down Or else I'd be writing a book as large as this one.

As far as me mentioning your size --- well I think that speaks for itself Ray, it's not size that counts, it's what's inside... and in my "books" you've got what it takes!"

God bless you in everything you undertake and I'm sure your future will be filled with only pleasant things.

Love always, "Bark"

DOUBLE AND TRIPLE EXPOSURES...

Our student body of 1960 boasts an unusual total of fifteen sets of twins. They are a rare occurrence in any society for out of every 90 births only one is a set of twins. They are hereditary and occur just about every other generation. Twins have to fight to be born, and it is a known fact that they struggle all their lives. We have both fraternal and identical twins-the ration being three to one.

We also have a set of triplets which occur once in 8,100. The Fritz triplets, Joyce, Joan, and Gerald were born November 4, 1944 in Wausau.

From now on everytime you think you are seeing double either in the halls or classrooms at WHS it won't be necessary for you to check with your oculist.

The Fritz triplets: Joan, Gerald, and Joyce

Can you pick out the twins that aren't really twins at all?

Ray - Gee, jest think, were almost frs. On a way I'm glad, but next year being the last year, it's kind of sad to leave you and all the other kids. Well anyway - Have fun the summer. Best such always,
Ed Brunelle

Ray, I know you're mad at me, I'm sorry about June & Thanks for helping me pass for cheating on the rebelly the Brain. Ray, One more year of school and then you'll be out, I wish you the best of luck in all that you try. Hope I see you at Rapp River this summer.
Donna Vlietstra

Ray, It's been nice having you in English. Best of luck to you. See you next fall. Have fun this summer.
Ellen Z.

Have fun be good!
Cindy Marcott

AN IMPORTANT

Behind every production, be it a play, sporting event, social activity, business enterprise, etc., there are people who never take a curtain call, never a bow. Yet, without these people "the show could not go on." This is of course unjust but sometimes necessary. As Editor I felt steps should be taken this year to give these people due recognition. Here it is . . . .

Kenneth J. Schoen

. . . S. K. Smith Company, Chicago, Ill. Ken spent a morning with us at Senior High and was a gracious host when I paid a visit to the Chicago plant to help create a suitable cover for our WAHISCAN. Many thanx!

Donna L. Ellefson

Miss Ellefson did a yoeman's job in selling the 1645 copies of the 1960 WAHISCAN. She took all the subscriptions and figured the distribution. Students, thank Miss Ellefson! She delivered it.

John C. Welch

. . . Fey Publishing Company, Wisconsin Rapids. Without John's guidance, good judgment, and patience there would be nothing, but nothing between the covers of this WAHISCAN. Many Thanx!

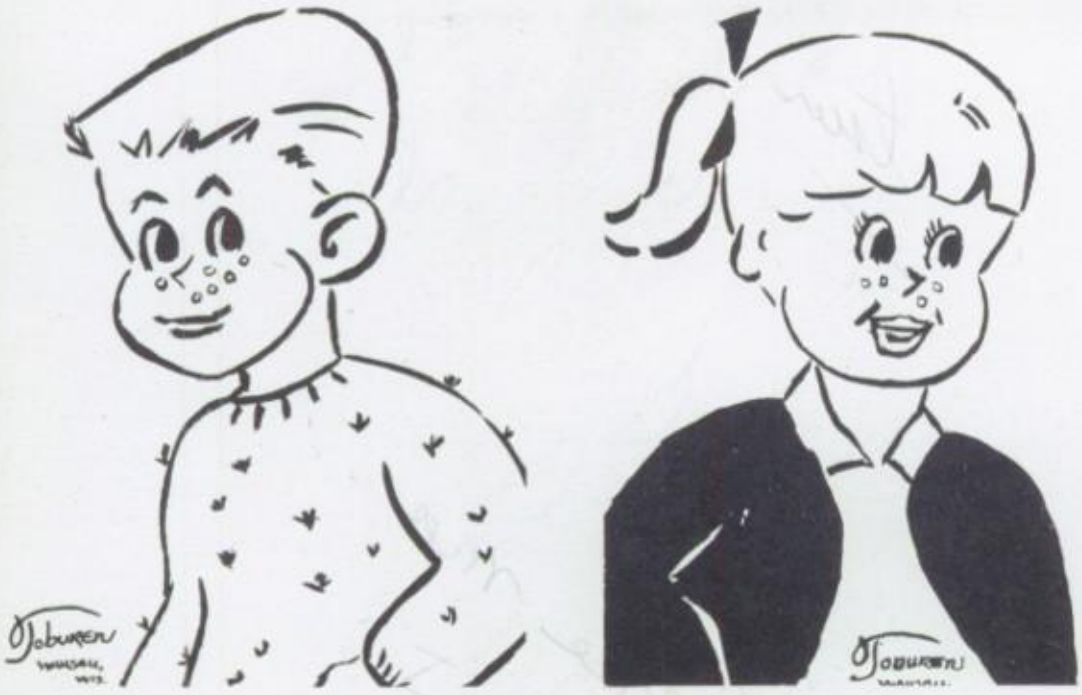
Ray Toburen

. . . Toburen Studio. Mr. Toburen is the official WAHISCAN photographer. Ray and the entire Toburen staff co-operated with us each and every day throughout the school year giving us the photographic coverage needed to produce a 1st class annual. To Ray Toburen and staff . . . . Many, Many Thanx!

Ray Gehring

. . . Toburen Studio. Toburen and company supplied us with a wealth of fine shots. Ray Gehring snapped, processed, and printed the majority. Also, Many, Many Thanx!

POSTSCRIPT . . .



What can be said about these two little rascals? At the turn of a pen point they gave us relief from the reccuring standard layouts necessary. We felt the use of this artwork would be "just enough" of a theme to add a little spice to the book.

I've saved this space to offer the most sincere thank-you I can to the staff who made this book. You (the staff) may not have a great material award for your work, but you do have one of the most important rewards, the satisfaction of having done a good job.

To Pat and Ilene Zimick, my Associate Editors, a great big THANK YOU!!

As I stated at the Quill Scroll Award Program, "There would be no WAHISCAN without G. K. Rosenhauer." Mr. Rosenhauer has been "the greatest", in every sense of the word. The entire staff joins me in offering a most humble "thank-you, Rosie."

The most unheralded group taking part in the WAHISCAN production is Mr. John Dzubay's Business Staff headed by Betty Remmers. Each and everyone of us owe them a debt of gratitude. They have pounded the streets soliciting adds to help pay for this book.

I will use a time honored phrase and say, "It has taken a combination of blood, sweat, tears, and lack of sleep to put this 44th WAHISCAN together page by page, picture by picture, and word by word." It has been the pleasure of my life.

Your Editor-in-Chief,

P.S. Thanks Coach!

To . . . .

Mr. Robert K. Geisel

Wausau Daily Record Hearld

Winkelman's Dept. Store

. . . my special thanks for your part in the production of this annual.

Ray,
I hope you had some brilliant students in your classes next year - just like the ones in Physics.

Ray
Just think only one more year & school left. Isn't that a pleasant thought.
The best of luck to you in your Senior Year.

Bonnie
Schwoebe

To The Biggest and fastest, toughest, and nicest Kid I Know & hope we will get together again soon.

Ray –
It's been nice having you sit next to me in homeroom (Ha, Ha,). But, seriously the best of luck to you next fall in the C.A.L. I'm sure maybe we won't be sitting next to each other next year. and I'll be attending school from this me next fall in the Only - Have fun this summer (at the Green door).

Dear Ray,
Do you remember me?
I still haven't found a nickname for you. I have really enjoyed talking with you when ever we met. Have a real neat year and always.
Best of everything to you now and
